

LEARN TO MAKE TATTED LACE

NEXT STEPS IN TATTING: FORGET-ME-NOT GARLANDS

Saturday, September 14, 2024 • 12:30 AM - 4:00 PM with Kevin Baum

Fee: $45

Are you already acquainted with the art of tating and ready to take your skills to the next level? Join us for an immersive workshop where you'll create stunning garlands featuring delicate forget-me-not flowers using just a shuttle and thread.

In this class, you'll explore intricate floral motifs that bring a touch of nature's beauty to your lacework. With the versatility of the forget-me-not flower, you'll have the opportunity to play with color and creativity. Bring your favorite threads in at least two different colors, and let your imagination flourish as you craft garlands that are as unique as you are.

MATERIALS: Small scissors, tating shuttle and #10/#20 cordonnet thread in two colors of your choosing. A large-eye needle is useful for finishing.

INSTRUCTOR: Kevin is a freelance professional singer with Bay Area groups like Clerestory and Endersnight. He learned tating in order to keep the tradition alive and as a viable activity that could be done while traveling.

You can register by mail, by email (info@lacismuseum.org), by phone, or in the museum shop.
