

AN EMBROIDERY WORKSHOP

ALL ABOUT BULLIONS

Thursday, July 25 or Saturday, July 27 • 3:00 - 6:00 with Laura Tandeske

Fee: $45 + $5 kit fee (payable to Laura)

In this course, you will learn how to create embroidered bullion knots. You will also learn how to use them in different designs. There is no set design for this class, just practice and discovery of the bullion knot! Experience threading a needle, tying a knot, and a few embroidered stitches is advised for this class.

KIT INCLUDES: Needle, fabric, and embroidery thread. Kit is optional; you can use your own supplies if desired. A Milliners (AKA straw) needle is recommended.

INSTRUCTOR: Laura Tandeske has been embroidering for 40+ years, and specializes in Surface Embroidery. She studied Fine Art at California State University East Bay, as well as Embroidery with the Embroiderers Guild of America and the San Francisco School of Needlework and Design. Her piece “Balance” toured the United States and Canada as part of the 2-year Sixteenth National Exhibit with the Embroiderers Guild of America.

You can register by mail, by email (info@lacismuseum.org), by phone, or in the museum shop.
